

Paranut Paosuwan (Ing)

Assistant Director

Filmmaker with five years of experience in the film industry, specializing in Assistant Directing from pre-production to post-production. Spent three years in Thailand working as a second assistant director on a Netflix series and a production assistant for an international company. Currently located in Canada, working as a first assistant director on independent films. Passionate about mastering my skills, with an intense ambition to become a film director with visual storytelling and bringing creative ideas to life. Proficient in photography, videography, colour grading, and editing using many kinds of professional software.
